

WELCOME TO THE PALM COURT

Sir Bracewell Smith is renowned to have built The Park Lane Hotel in 1927. He oversaw some ingenious building techniques, from the ground-breaking internal steel structure of the hotel, nicknamed “the birdcage”, to the state-of-the-art whitening system for the façade.

Step back in history to the Roaring 20s with original Art Deco features and savour our delicious featuring intrinsically designed pastries and delectable savoury treats inspired by the 1920s, with a contemporary twist.

AFTERNOON TEA A Brief History

Afternoon Tea is recognised around the world as a quintessentially British tradition. The exact origins of the Afternoon Tea are unknown, but one lady features predominantly in all theories; born in 1783, Anna, Seventh Duchess of Bedford, lady-in-waiting to Her Majesty, Queen Victoria.

Traditionally, dinner was not served until 8:30pm or 9:00pm in the evening and the Duchess often became hungry, especially in the summer when dinner was served even later. Every afternoon, she experienced a “sinking feeling” and requested sandwiches and cakes between 3pm and 4pm in the afternoon.

Soon others followed the Duchess’ lead. In 1842, a well known actress named Fanny Kemble heard of Afternoon Tea, and began to invite some guests to join her. Soon all of fashionable London was sipping tea with a variety of sandwiches on the side. The custom of “taking tea” in the afternoon had become well established, along with a complex set of rules and etiquette.

Afternoon Tea prices are subject to change for seasonal menus. All prices are inclusive of VAT. A discretionary 12.5% Service charge will be added to your bill. A minimum charge of £42.00 per person will be applied on Friday, Saturday and Sunday between 12:00pm and 7:00pm.
